

IDEOLOGY:

Were there more Liberal rulings than Conservative rulings in the 1960s?

How many Liberal rulings were there in the year 1963?

Does the number of cases increase or decrease over time?

Is the Court more or less ideologically balanced after the year 2000 than it was before the year 2000?

ISSUE AREA AND UNCONSTITUTIONALITY:

In which issue area were the most cases decided between the years of 1946 and 2017?

What percentage of rulings were classified under Economic Activity from 1980 to 1985?

What percentage of rulings under Economic Activity were ruled unconstitutionally in 1980 to 1985?

What percentage of rulings were classified as Civil Rights in the year 1989?

PRECEDENT:

What is the longest-standing precedent between the years of 1946 and 2017 and how long did the precedent last?

How many precedents were altered between the years of 1946 to 2017 such that the starting ideology was the same as the ending ideology?

How many precedents were altered between 1980 to 2000 in the area of Judicial Power?

How many precedents were overturned in the year 1992?

MISC:

On a scale from 0-5 with 5 being the most visually appealing, how visually appealing is the collection of visualizations?

On a scale from 0-5 with 5 being the most intuitive, how intuitive is our design to interact with?

On a scale from 0-5, with 5 being the most intuitive, how intuitive is it to obtain specific information from our design?

Which question was the hardest to answer?

Any other comments?